- 1.) Being registered for at least 3 months (required of everyone who is at least 18 years of age) and the weekly participation in worship, unless ill or homebound.
- 2.) An identifiable financial support of the Parish. Please use the parish envelope system or OSV Online Giving. If you do not have the means to make a financial contribution, please place an empty envelope in the offertory basket so your attendance at the weekend Mass can be counted.
- 3.) Involvement in at least a ministry, a program, an activity or an organization in the parish.

These criteria listed above are used to appraise or verify parishioner status for sponsorship, parochial schools, participation in sacramental, educational, pastoral and social ministries, activities and enrichment programs, and use of facilities and services. Divine Redeemer church has a weekly Bible Study. Come join us! The Catechism tells us to actively participate in the Mass, and one way to do that is to prepare by studying the upcoming Sunday scripture readings.

The Bible Study will meet at the Elms Clubhouse (9100 Elms Plantation Dr., N. Charleston) on Fridays at 11:00 for the study. If desired, workbooks containing the Sunday readings and commentary for the year will be available for $15.00. (We'll use the lector workbooks or you can also find the readings online or use some other source.)

This study is informal and will provide the opportunity for faith-sharing. The study is designed for adults and will be facilitated by parishioners, Terry and Elizabeth Brown. No past experience is needed, and more participants add more value and faith-sharing. You can come to just one or all of them – each one stands alone.

Questions? Contact Elizabeth at usmcfan@att.net or call 843-696-6966

Saint Jude: Saint of the Impossible

By Monique Sammut | October 28, 2018

"Faithful Friend and Follower of Jesus"

Jude Thaddeus was one of Jesus' original twelve apostles. Saint Jude was very popular in the middle ages. However, many began to confuse Saint Jude with Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Jesus. Because of this, Saint Jude slipped into obscurity for many years.

The name Thaddeus means courageous heart, and serves as a kind of nickname for Saint Jude. It is believed that Jude was the brother of James the Less, who was also one of the apostles, and Simon the Zealot who shares Saint Jude's feast day. It is also believed that James and Jude were Jesus' second cousins. Most of Jude's life is shrouded in speculation and legend and thus, nothing can be known for certain. A Mission of Love Our Lord appeared to both Saint Bridget of Sweden and Saint Bernard, asking them to accept Saint Jude as the "Patron Saint of the Impossible." Jesus told Saint Brigid of Sweden: "In accordance with his surname (last name), Thaddeus, the amiable or loving, he will show himself most willing to give help." Throughout his life, Jude preached the Gospel passionately even when it was very difficult. He traveled throughout Mesopotamia, Lybia, and Persia with Saint Simon the Zealot. It is believed that both Simon and Jude were martyred in either Persia or Armenia.

Saint Jude is the Patron Saint of hopeless, lost, desperate, and impossible causes. Legend has it that many people did not pray for his intercession because they were afraid of accidentally praying to Judas Iscariot. It is believed that Saint Jude was so eager to assist anyone who prayed to him that he interceded in the most impossible situations. He is usually depicted holding a club and the image of Jesus in his hands. He is also pictured with a flame on his head, which is a symbol of Pentecost. The Feast of Saint Jude (and Saint Simon) is celebrated on October 28 in Western Christianity. Eastern Christianity celebrates their feast on June 19.
